

Spanish 002 Syllabus - Fall 2016

Borja Gutiérrez

Faculty Lecturer in Spanish

Administrative Supervisor of Spanish 2 & 3

Spanish 2 Sections Taught: 2, 3, 8, 14, 24, 27, and 31.

Office Address: 134 Burrowes Building. University E-mail: bxg207@psu.edu. Office Phone: 814-865-6587

Office Hours: MW 4:00-5:00 p.m., T 3:00-5:00 p.m., OR by Appointment (Made via e-mail).

- Class grading scale, assessment categories and percentages can be found in the Spanish 2 & 3 policies document. It is your responsibility to read and understand the course policies that can be found on the SBLP website: <http://sip.la.psu.edu/blp/courses/syllabi-and-policies>.
- Each section of SPAN 002 will cover the same topics on the dates listed on this syllabus; individual activities may vary. The pages indicated correspond to the Mosaicos textbook. If you cannot attend a class, regardless of the reason for your absence, you will be responsible for contacting other classmates to obtain any missed information. If you need further clarification, schedule an appointment with your me to answer any specific questions you may have.
- Online assignments should be completed on ANGEL or MySpanishLab, as indicated in this document. They are due on Sundays at 11:59 p.m., unless indicated otherwise in this document. Technical problems are not an excuse for not completing these assignments. Plan accordingly. If you have any questions about the content of the assignments, please email me. If you experience technical difficulties with MySpanishLab or ANGEL please fill out the help form at <http://sip.la.psu.edu/blp/tech-support/helpform>.
- There will be three writing assignments (escrituras). They must be a minimum of 75 words long. Each escritura will have a first handwritten version and a final typed and printed version. The first versions will be written in class on the dates indicated in this document. When writing in-class escrituras, you will not be allowed to use any electronic devices, but you can use your textbook, notes and a traditional (paper) dictionary. You may not copy sentences from your textbook or elsewhere. All versions of your escrituras must be produced by you. They may NOT be written, corrected, or edited by someone—anyone—other than you. Doing so will be considered plagiarism and you will receive a 0 (zero) grade on the assignment (first and final versions) and it will be reported to the College of Liberal Arts. The final version is a rewrite of the first version, following my comments. They are due at the beginning of class on the days specified in this document. They must be typed with Arial 12 font, double-spaced, 1" margins and printed out. If the final version is not typed, there will be a 0.5-point deduction in the assignment grade. See the policies for more information on escrituras. Each version of the escrituras will be returned to you corrected and graded one week after you turn it in.
- There will be four closed-book exams in this course. Exams 1, 2, and 3 will take place at the Testing Center (<http://www.testing.psu.edu>) on the dates specified below. The Testing Center will email you instructions regarding how to sign up for a time slot. These exams will include five sections: listening comprehension, grammar, vocabulary, reading comprehension, and a 65-word essay. You will have 90 minutes to complete these exams. You must take your Penn State ID and your own earphones. The Testing Center will provide you with a piece of bar-coded paper to use during the exam. You must SCAN and RETURN the entire sheet of paper before leaving the Testing Center. Failure to do so will result in an "F" for your final course grade.

Exam 1: In week 6, Tuesday, September 27th through Friday, September 30th

Exam 2: In week 10, Tuesday, October 25th through Friday, October 28th

Exam 3: In week 14, Tuesday, November 29th through Friday, December 2nd

The fourth exam is the Oral Exam, and will take place in your classroom in week 15. See the policies for more information regarding this exam.

- University Important Dates: For the deadlines for Drop, Add, Late Drop, and Withdrawal, see the university's academic calendar: http://registrar.psu.edu/academic_calendar/calendar_index.cfm

9.2.1 Vocabulary Buscando trabajo (p. 148) 9.2.3 Formal commands (pp. 162-163) Oral Input: Escuche estos mandatos. Students listen to different commands and decide which photo depicts the command they heard. Written and Oral Output: En el trabajo. Individually, students will write down three commands they can hear by three different professionals at their workplace (using formal commands). In pairs, students will read them to a classmate who will need to guess (ask questions) what kind of work he/she is looking for and where. Oral Output: El trabajo. In pairs, students discuss what they consider to be the three most important things to do when looking for a job. They then share this information with the class. Oral Output (Time permitting): Una nueva empresa. Students decide on a business they would open in State College. In pairs, they discuss what needs to be done to get the business open. Oral exam: Presentation and sign up	9.2.2 More on the imperfect and the preterit (pp. 158-159) Written Input: Trabajos. In pairs, students complete the sentences provided with the appropriate verb, choosing between imperfect and preterit tenses. Oral Output: ¿Qué profesión es? In pairs, students read some information about certain people and what they did yesterday. Based on the description provided, students need to figure out their trades, professions, or occupations, and what they intended to do next. Oral Output: ¿Qué estaban haciendo en la oficina? In pairs, students look at the pictures in Mosaicos (p. 159, 9-23), and ask their partners what those people were doing in the office (focusing on imperfect progressive). Oral Output: Mi última fiesta. Students describe their last holiday party to a partner. Students need to say if they wanted to go to the party, if they met new people, and if they were able to do certain things. Escritura 3 – FINAL VERSION DUE AT BEGINNING OF CLASS (see above)
